

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

SCIENTIFIC SYMPOSIUM

“ANTIMICROBIAL RESISTANCE: A CHALLENGE FOR PUBLIC HEALTH, ANIMAL HEALTH AND THE ENVIRONMENT”

June 25th, 2026, 9 am – 12 am in Brussels (Pacheco center) and via webinar

We are excited to invite you to this upcoming scientific symposium in Brussels which will focus on antimicrobial use and resistance in animals and the impact on public health, animal health and the environment.

Next to keynote presentations provided by renowned experts, the scientific committee will select high quality presentations among abstracts submitted before May 8, 2026.

Furthermore the scientific committee is happy to announce that this year prices will be assigned to the two best posters.

Participation is free of charge. Registration will be open soon, more information will become available on the website www.amcra.be.

We welcome abstracts on the following topics (not exhaustive list): antimicrobial use and antimicrobial resistance in animals (mechanisms, spread, ...), antimicrobial stewardship in animals, prevention and control of antimicrobial resistant organisms, impact on public health, animal health and welfare and environment, vaccination, alternatives (pre-, pro- and synbiotics, phages, bacteriocins, ...), ...

Abstract submission

To submit an abstract for an oral or a poster presentation, use the template provided on the following page. Please submit your abstract in English.

Abstract submission is possible until May 8, 2026.

Your abstract should not exceed 1 page (A4) length and should be sent as a .pdf form to the e-mail address info@amcra.be

We are looking forward to receive your contribution and to meet you in Brussels on June 25th!
